A message from the Headteacher

Thank you all for your patience and understanding whilst the fencing work continues – I am sure you will agree that it will be worth it in the end.

Next week our Year 6 children will have the opportunity to show how much progress they have made as they take their end of Key Stage 2 SATs. We will be welcoming them into school every morning with a SATs breakfast to ensure that they are calm, confident and well prepared. I have every confidence in them and am extremely proud of their work ethic, resilience and determination - I am sure you will join with me in wishing them luck as they sit their exams.

We enjoyed a very informative and entertaining anti-bullying session from singer-songwriter Amy G. The children all contributed well and it was fantastic to see how they are building on their knowledge of how to keep safe in a social media context, as well as within school. It was very clear from their contributions that they know how to report any unkindness they encounter and that they have suitably high expectations of how adults in school should deal with any concerns.

I hope that the Year 1 parents found the phonics workshop useful earlier this week. The information will be uploaded onto the website, with paper copies being sent home, which will support anyone who was unable to attend.

I am very much looking forward to seeing many of you at the Friends' barbecue this afternoon. I know a lot of hard work and planning has gone into organising the event and I am keeping my fingers crossed for dry weather. Please do come and support if you are able.

Have a fantastic weekend.

Miss Stockley

Year 6 SATs (Next week 13th – 16th May)

There will be a SATs breakfast available for Year 6 children on the mornings of the SATs tests from 8:15am in the school dining hall. We would love the children to come so that they can see their friends, get rid of any last minute nerves and be on time!

Pastries, toast, juice etc will be available.

Top Table – Wednesday 15th May 19

Class name	Child's name	Reason
Kandinsky	Rida	For building confidence and being able to explain her reasoning to her friends in maths.
Mondrian	Andrei	For his growing confidence in explaining his maths knowledge and for his great enthusiasm towards phonics. Well done!
Matisse	Abdi	For speaking up more in class and being enthusiastic whilst learning about mini beasts.
Monet	Leokii	For his empathy and compassion towards his peers.
Van Gogh	Lwena	For consistently applying herself to her work to make it the best it can be and for growing in confidence in class. Keep those valuable contributions coming!
Blake	William	For a thoughtful and carefully produced piece of work on empathy - particularly how to care for one another at school and at home.
Warhol	Charlie	For making a poster about empathy, which shows, he is considerate of other people's feelings. Excellent drawing skills but even better for understanding what empathy means.
Shonibare	Julia S.	For the empathy and emotional intelligence, she shows when dealing with her peers!
Riley	Tycjan	For his humility and polite attitude. He quietly gets on with all of his tasks and sets a wonderful example to the other children in year 6.

Year 3 Tate Project

Year 3 were very excited yesterday to have their visit from Tate Britain's photographer for the Tate Year 3 Project. We did some role play and learned how to 'read' a photograph – why not ask your child what the three layers of reading are! For those who don't know about the project, it is being put together by Tate and Steve McQueen, the Turner Prize winning artist and Oscar winning director. Around 3,500 classes in Year 3 across London will have their photos in the show (which starts in November this year), including ours! We are all looking forward to spotting our classes in amongst our peers. A big thank you to Miss Agyeman for organising for us to take part in this fantastic venture.

Plants in Every Classroom Campaign: Plants in classrooms have many proven benefits to children – increased focus and attention, lower stress and better air quality. We want to bring the benefits and beauty of plants to our children's classrooms. Today, we launch our campaign with more information in your child's bookbag. From today – Friday 21 June, we will share ways to get involved and support every child to have a plant in their classroom. Children will be asked to care for their plants over the Summer Break and bring them to their new classrooms in the Autumn.

Online Fundraising: We have 2 new online platforms to help raise money for the school at a click of a button.

Summer Fair: Our hotly-anticipated Summer Fair is back again on Saturday 15 June on Chiswick Back Common. Expect fun and entertainment for all: bouncy castle, photobooth, face painting, children's performances, international food, tombola and raffle prizes. Please let us know if you have any leads on raffle prizes, corporate sponsors, great ideas or if you have time to help in any way!

Corporate Match Funding: Many UK companies match fund their employees' fundraising efforts. It's a simple way to maximise vital funds for our school. Recently, a generous major gift to our school was tripled through match funding and Gift Aid. Please check with employers whether a scheme is in place to support our school.
